

Erasmus Mundus MaMaSELF Joint Masters Scholarships 2023:

MaMaSELF is a 2-year ERASMUS MUNDUS Course in Materials Science Exploring Large Scale Facilities (MAMASELF). It deals with material characterization using neutron and synchrotron radiation with strong synergies between universities, industrial partners, and research centres. In an international environment, it offers excellent academic and industrial opportunities to Master Students.

Eligibility criteria

To be eligible, applicants must.

- have a Bachelor (180 ECTS) in Materials Science or related disciplines: Chemistry, Physics, Geo-science, ...
- have proof of good English competencies, e.g. TOEFL CBT 230 and PBT 550 IBT 80 / IELTS 6.5 or equivalent, except for applicants native from English speaking countries and for students having been educated in English at secondary or/and university. Students who intend to have a mobility at TUM must have following level for admission at TUM: TOEFL IBT 88, CBT 234/ PBT 605
- Students coming from main background: civil engineering, medicine, pharmacy, architecture, accounting, law will not be accepted unless they have a minimum background in Chemistry or Physics (at Bachelor level).

Eligible Countries: International

To be taken at (Universities):

- University of Rennes 1-UR1, France
- University of Torino-TO, Italy
- Technical University of Munich-TUM, Germany
- Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich-LMU, Germany
- University of Montpellier-UM, France

Type: Masters

Number of Awardees: Not specified

Value of Scholarship: The Erasmus Mundus scholarship covers tuition fees and allows to cover all expenses that non-eu students normally face during their studies.

Duration of Scholarship: 2 years

Application Deadline:

- The scholarship deadline for non-European students is 6 February 2023.
- The scholarship deadline for European students is 20 March 2023.
- All students can apply until 15th May 2023, without scholarship.

Results

The results will be published on the application site by mid-March 2023

For all information, please refer to our website www.mamaself.eu

Application procedure

A student can apply maximum 3 times for Master Mamaself. After 3 applications to the Master, the next application will not be considered.

- Create your account
- Fill the application form
- Add the requested documents
- READ the FAQ in order to have all information (especially regarding English proficiency and reference letters)

- The application will be evaluated in February for non-EU students. The results will be given first week of March for non-EU applicants, and first week of April for EU students.

Link: Home \(mamaself.eu\)